

AWDRNE – Organisation Overview (Reach Version)

About Us

AWDRNE (All Wheel Drive Response North East) is a community-focused charity supporting people across the North East with First Aid Awareness training, community safety support, and practical help during severe weather and times of local need. Our aim is to help communities stay safe, informed, and confident.

What We Do

- Deliver free and low-cost First Aid Awareness sessions for families, young people, and community groups.
- Provide basic first aid and welfare support at local events.
- Assist vulnerable people and local organisations during challenging weather conditions.
- Work with libraries, community centres, VODA and other community partners to expand access to safety education.

Who We Support

We support families, parents, children, young people, vulnerable adults and local community groups who benefit from practical safety knowledge and a supportive community presence.

Our Mission

To strengthen community resilience by empowering people with lifesaving skills, promoting safety and supporting vulnerable individuals during emergencies.

Our Values

- Community – putting people at the heart of what we do.
- Safety – helping families feel confident and prepared.
- Support – offering reassurance, guidance and practical help.
- Inclusion – making First Aid knowledge accessible to everyone.
- Resilience – building stronger, safer, more connected communities.
